

Antique Roll-Over Serving Dish, English, Silver Plate, Dome Top Tureen, Server

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8484

This is an antique roll-over serving dish. An English, silver plated dome top tureen or server, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Add an elegant touch to the table with this striking tureen
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Presents a delightful reflective quality to the silver plate
- Engraved with a foliate quarterfoil to the apex of the dome
- Fascinating lid retracts and nests around itself - a distinctive lobe pull aiding access
- Removable butter tray with attractive pierced fretwork, sat upon a drip tray within the base
- Ideal for keeping butter, sauces, heating peas or other vegetables
- Standing upon a quartet of tapering fluted legs with hairy paw feet

This is an appealing antique roll-over serving, ideal for the breakfast or dinner table. Graced with bright, reflective silver plate and ornate detail. Delivered polished and ready to serve.

Search London Fine for #18.8484, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 33cm (13")
 Max Depth: 24.5cm (9.75")
 Max Height: 22cm (8.75")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

