

Antique Colonial Side Cabinet, Anglo Indian, Drinks, Hall Cupboard, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8569

This is an antique colonial side cabinet. An Anglo-Indian, rosewood drinks or hall cupboard, dating to the William IV period, circa 1830.

- Of striking appearance, with deep colour and shimmering brass inlays
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and deep russet hues
- Enthusiastic brass marquetry adorns the front fascia with contrasting golden tones
- Usefully narrow in profile, ideal for use in the reception hall or to the side of a room
- Excellent gadrooned edge moulding decorates the wide top surface
- Arranged as a pair of heavily inlaid doors presenting deep field panels with domed tops
- Dressed with an inset, brass lined lock escutcheon — in working order, keys present
- Skilfully accentuated with a chased foliate inlay, representing an enviable bespoke appearance
- Left-hand door with sliding brass clasps set within the trailing edge
- Single shelf to the interior, sliding outwards for ease of access or removal
