DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8580

This is an antique adjustable reading table. An English, mahogany rotating lectern or recital stand, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Offering a multitude of adjustment and versatile for differing uses
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select stocks show fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Adjusts for height and angle - ideal for the arm chair or free-standing for public speaking
- Generously sized top with articulated rests to each side, folding away beneath the platform
- The top rotates through 90-degrees each way, from vertical to the horizontal plane
- Toothed support arm adjusts for height, activated by a cast iron level mechanism
- Maker's mark cast upon the mechanism for Carters, with an enamel plaque to the reverse of the rest
  - The label reads 'By Appointment to H.M. The King, Carters LTD, New Cavendish Street, London'
- Distinctive shaped base riding upon castors, ideal for tucking beneath an armchair or bed
