

Pair Of Heavy Antique Planters, English, Lead, Planting Pot, Victorian, C.1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8637

This is a pair of heavy antique planters. An English, lead circular planting pot, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Impressively heavy planters with tasteful Victorian period decoration
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Lead body presents a mid grey tonality, with lighter interiors
- Stout in weight, the planters weigh approximately 35kg (77.16 lb)
- Adorned with shield-shape panels and charming lion's had masks
- Replete with a trio of drainage holes to the base

This is a charming pair of heavy antique planters, ideal for the decorative garden and generously sized for arrangements or ornamental trees. Delivered ready to fill.

Search London Fine for #18.8637 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- First Planter Width: 40.5cm (16")
- First Planter Depth: 40.5cm (16")
- First Planter Height: 29.5cm (11.5")
- Weight: 34.6kg (76.27 lb)
- Second Planter Width: 42.5cm (16.75")
- Second Planter Depth: 42cm (16.5")
- Second Planter Height: 30cm (11.75")
- Weight: 36kg (79.36 lb)

LIST PRICE

£2,950.00

