

Pair Of Antique Side Chairs, French, Painted, Hall, Occasional Seat, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8566

This is a pair of antique side chairs. A superb quality French, painted solid walnut hall or occasional seat, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Appealing, solid antique chairs with fascinating details
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Original painted frame with a lightly weathered finish
- Drop-in seats would benefit from re-webbing and a new cover
- Elaborate seat backs, profuse with relief carved details
 - Arched top rail terminates in scrolled 'ears' and adorned with acanthus leaf and feather detail
- Cushions with green velour upholstery sit upon a tiered apron
- Raised upon front cabriole legs with pad feet, decorated to the knee - gently splayed rear legs

This is a charming pair of antique side chairs, with a decorative finish throughout. Ideally suited for reupholstering to taste, or enjoyed as they are. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
