

Vintage Spirit Tantalus, Danish, Teak, Glass, Bar Caddy, Decanters, Mid Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8601

This is a vintage spirit Tantalus. A Danish, teak and glass bar caddy, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Appealing Scandinavian craftsmanship, with fascinating form and function
- Displays a desirable aged patina and excellent condition throughout
- Select teak stocks show fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Trio of glass decanters free of marks and in good order
- Pegged Tantalus clasp with integral handle an unusual feature
- Rakish triangle profile with gently chamfered edges
- Each decanter sits neatly within one of the three compartments
- Decanter sealed with a quality brass and cork stopper, replete with loop pulls
- Maker's emblems adorn each vessel, reading 'Holme Gaard, of Copenhagen'
- Brass maker's mark for Dyrland inset within the Tantalus frame, repeated to the base of each decanter
- Dyrland was a noted Danish cabinetmaker in the mid 20th century, with progressive designs

Search London Fine for #18.8601, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 34cm (13.5")
 Max Depth: 12.5cm (5")
 Max Height: 27cm (10.75")
 Decanter Width: 9.5cm (3.75")
 Decanter Depth: 7.5cm (3")
 Decanter Height: 19cm (7.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

