

Antique Turners Chair, Victorian, Scottish, Oak, Circa 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1794

This is an antique tuner's chair, a Victorian example with Scottish overtones, in oak and dating to circa 1900.

- Deep, dark and warm tones to the oak
- Desirable aged patina in a lustrous wax polished finish
- Stout stock with the legs three inches in diameter
- Of quality craftsmanship
- Ring turned with bobbin turned armrests
- Chip carved backrest featuring geometric shapes and flags
- Repeated on the back of the backrest
- Shaped brackets for extra support and decoration

A super example the Victorian's passion for revival furniture. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
