

Large Antique Billiard Scoreboard Cabinet, Walnut, Burroughes & Watts, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8621

This is a large antique billiard and pool scoreboard cabinet. An English, walnut decorative games room cupboard by Burroughes & Watts of London, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Of superb proportion and wonderful decorative appeal, a treat for any room
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Select walnut presents dark caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Configured for scoring several variants of billiards and pool games
- Pair of rotating drum cylinders marked from 0-100, the brass sliders gliding across the rails
- Slate scoreboard to centre with sliding life pool counters either side - inlaid counters in delightful Mother of Pearl
- Coloured tabs with corresponding coin slots accessed by a pair of drop-front doors
- Replete with a set of quality coloured balls, stored within a glazed gallery on green baize
- Cabinet base hosting a pair of standard drawers over two cabinets, dressed with brass lock escutcheons
- Fascia enhanced with field panels of decorative foliate relief and acanthus leaf detail
- Arranged with a storage shelf within, ideal as a cocktail cabinet or for gam ...

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 122.5cm (48.25")

Max Depth: 40.5cm (16")

Max Height: 180cm (70.75")

