

Cromwellian Six Plank Chest, mid C17th

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1370 This is an antique Cromwellian, country, 6 plank chest dating to the mid 17th Century around the period of the English Civil War. A fine example, vigorously and well carved in English oak, displaying the most wonderful aged patina to the weathered boards. This modest example is constructed in classic six plank form with solid joints. The hand carving, typical of the period, displaying geometric stylised scrolls and foliate detail beneath a band of lunettes around the centred initials 'T.W.' either side of the lock plate. The sides and back panel are plain with the end panels extending into shaped legs. The lid lifts on iron, wire strap hinges offering storage within and a candle box to one end. An iron lock plate is present absent of lock and key. Superb period charm and in good antique order, this piece is delivered waxed and polished ready for the home.
