

Jacobean Revival Oak Joint Stool, Victorian c.1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1369 This is a Victorian, Jacobean Revival joint stool. Well made towards the end of the 19th Century, this oak stool is in the 17th Century taste featuring lunettes around demi-floral carvings to the apron. Raised on square section feet united by plain stretchers, with the corners softened, the splayed, turned legs are sturdy and peg jointed. The top has attractive grain detail with a simply moulded edge and the warm russet tones throughout add appeal to this piece. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
