

Antique Decorative Billiard Mirror, English, Ceramic Tiles, Snooker, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8522

This is an antique decorative billiard mirror. An English, ebonised pine frame with ceramic snooker scene tiles, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Utterly fascinating decorative mirror with superb appeal for fans of cue sports
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Ebonised pine frame hosts a central mirror and twelve ceramic tiles
- Each tile shows a charming billiard or snooker scene with a bright, colourful palette
- Quality bevelled mirror plate shows a pleasingly light foxing commensurate with age
- Mounted with a pair of small brass loops for ease of hanging

This is an exceptional antique decorative billiard mirror, with twelve colourful scenes of sporting interest. A treat for any room or institution. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.

Search London Fine for #18.8522 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 99cm (39")
 Max Depth: 4cm (1.5")
 Max Height: 79cm (31")
 Mirror Plate Width: 33.5cm (13.25")
 Mirror Plate Height: 23.5cm (9.25")

