

Antique Sarcophagus Tea Caddy, Anglo Indian, Colonial, Campaign, Victorian, 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8649

This is an antique sarcophagus tea caddy. An Anglo-Indian rosewood colonial campaign casket with brass inlay, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Striking appearance with quality inlaid brass and a delightful sarcophagus form
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Select stocks show fine grain interest throughout
- Warm caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
 - Shallow sarcophagus top with central lozenge bearing a brass inlaid quaterfoil symbol
- Interior dressed with a pair of gently narrowing compartments
- Each removable lid has a small brass pull set within an inlaid medallion
- Lid interior lined with ruched velvet in a medium green hue
- Front fascia dressed with an inset brass lock escutcheon — key absent
- Further brass inlay decorating the caddy with golden tones
- Circular brass drop handles to each side, looping through ornate foliate backplates
