

Antique Shipwright's Trunk, Pine, Craftsman, Tool Chest, Victorian, Circa 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8664

This is an antique shipwright's trunk. An English, pine craftsman's tool chest, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Versatile and generously sized, makes for an attractive craftsman's chest
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Presented with a dark stained pine exterior with light weathering
- Clean, naturally finished pine interior shows fine grain interest and biscuit hues
- Deep lid opens smoothly, coming to rest on a rear brace
- Inset with a later 1928 copper Half Penny coin to the corner
- Inset working lock – key present with balance weight key fob
- Hand painted type to fascia reads 'B.R Tucker, SHwt No 25020'
- Stout keepers to either side host a quality braided rope handle
- Dressed with a useful, small brass hook to the rear
- Visible dovetail joint construction shows the durable, lasting nature
