

Pair Of Small Antique Toddy Ladles, Scottish, Whisky Spoon, Hallmark, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8642

This is a pair of small antique todody ladles. A Scottish, silver whisky spoon with hallmarks from the William IV period, dated 1831.

- Fascinating pair of William IV period silver spoons, ideal for the drinks cabinet
- Displaying a desirable aged patina commensurate with age
- Sterling silver presents a bright reflective sheen and signs of gentle polishing
- Decorated with engraved monogram to fiddle handles
- Hallmarks for George Bell, with the Scots thistle, Edinburgh assay mark and 1831 date letter Z

This is a charming pair of antique todody ladles, with a great appearance and charming detail. Delivered polished and ready to serve.

Search London Fine for #18.8642 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 4cm (1.5")
Max Depth: 7.5cm (3")
Max Height: 12cm (4.75")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

