

Antique Writing Desk, French, Flame, Cedar, Bonheur Du Jour, Victorian, C.1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8676

This is an antique writing desk. A French, flame mahogany and cedar bonheur du jour, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1860.

- Of wonderful proportion and rich in colour
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Delightful flame stocks present warm caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Quality cedar stocks to the drawer boxes
- Ornate forms to the back stand with inset upper shelf
- Generously sized lower shelf between the serpentine sides
- Opening outwards, the writing slope presents a crimson skiver
- A suite of pen trays and cubbies sit behind the opening upper skiver compartment
- Wide drawer to lower fascia with circular wooden pulls
 - The main drawer and skiver replete with inset brass-lined locks — matched key present

- The right hand side contains a second, pull-out drawer

Search London Fine for #18.8676 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 61.5cm (24.25")
 Max Depth: 49cm (19.25")
 Max Height: 127.5cm (50.25")
 Writing Slope Width: 57.5cm (22.75")
 Writing Slope Depth: 43.5cm (17.25")
 Writing Slope Height: 75.5cm (29.75")

