This is a very large 7' 6" antique pedestal sideboard. An English, mahogany dresser cabinet with mirror, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Striking country house proportion and craftsmanship, with wonderful colour
- Displays a desirable aged patina – minimal foxing to the mirror plate
- Select stocks present wonderful grain interest
- The radiant colours of russet hues shine through the wax polish finish
- Wide dressing mirror back rest with scroll carved wings
- Generous sideboard top with tiered plinth over a prominent chamfered edge
- Useful central drawer with lobe carved detail hosting a blind pull
- Bow front shape repeats in the lower plinth insert uniting the twin pedestals
 - Pair of cabinets of domed field panel finish, dressed with working locks – key present
 - Left pedestal hosting an upper drawer and a pair of robe slides below
 - Opposite, the upper drawer joined by a deep cocktail drawer with lead-lined insert
