

Pair Of Antique Carnival Plaques, Venetian, Bronze, Decorative, Victorian, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8795

This is a pair of antique carnival plaques. A Venetian, bronze on oak decorative wall plate, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Fascinating plaques, of superb quality and distinction
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Lightly polished bronze shows shimmering golden tones and minimal tarnish
- Set upon shaped oak plinths with unusual demi-lune corners
- Charming relief scenes presenting dancers at a masquerade ball
- Pairs of figures hand-in-hand, with traditional renaissance period masks
- Maker's marks engraved to lower corner, appears to read 'Kusuik'
- Dressed to rear with small brass hanging loops for ease of mounting

This is a striking pair of antique carnival plaques, with appealing Renaissance taste and of satisfying weight in the hand. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.

Search London Fine for #18.8795 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 27.5cm (10.75")

Max Depth: 2cm (.75")

Max Height: 32.5cm (12.75")

LIST PRICE

£1,850.00

