This is an antique canapé sofa. A Continental, ebonised wing settee in Louis XV revival taste, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Exudes quality and the quintessential revival taste of Louis Xv craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order, benefiting from gentle use
- Dashing ebonised show frame adorned with relief carved leaf patterns
- Superb quality cotton line fabric in light cream hues, professionally upholstered
- Generous seating for three, with a high cushioned back rest
- Cushioned arms flow gracefully towards pronounced knuckles
- Each seat defined by the serpentine front cushion
- Tasteful golden brocade trim adorns the fabric throughout
- Contrasting against the frame, golden beading accentuates the arms and front apron
- Double scrolled aprons add a distinctive touch to the lower rails
- Raised upon six cabriole legs, arranged across the front as a four, and a pair to the rear
