

Vintage Dressing Mirror, Continental, Gilt, 3 Panel Room Divider, Privacy Screen

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8739

This is a vintage dressing mirror. A Continental, gilt resin 3-panel divider or privacy screen, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970.

- Striking in appearance, with superb mirrors and Italianate detail
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Gilt resin frame with bright white border detail and pleasingly heavy
 - Folds outwards for the full-width effect, or inwards to give a near 270-degree dressing view
- Each bevelled mirror plate in good original order with minimal foxing
- Of excellent quality and presenting a fine reflection
- Prominent scrolled leaf mount adorns the top of the centre mirror
- Dressed to the reverse with coloured velvets, with black brocade trim

This is an ornate and appealing vintage dressing mirror, with a versatile folding design ideal for viewing an outfit. Great colour to the frame and proportion. Delivered polished and ready for the dressing room or boudoir.

Search London Fine for #18.8739, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 122cm (48")
- Max Depth: 12cm (4.75")
- Max Height: 170.5cm (67.25")
- Centre Mirror Width: 29cm (11.5")
- Centre Mirror Height: 151.5cm (59.75")

