

Antique Free Standing Fire Basket, English, Cast Iron Fireplace, Victorian, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8845

This is an antique free-standing fire basket. An English, cast iron fireplace, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Superb free-standing fireplace with Gothic revival overtones
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Presented with a good, consistent graphite finish throughout
- Generously sized, self-contained basket with attached fire dogs
- Portcullis fire basket with a trio of removable grates for ease of cleaning
- Pair of distinctive andirons, of twist form with rolled fire spit loops
- Andirons stand upon charming demi-lune front legs, with scrolled toes to rear
- Measures 58cm across the back (22.75"), ideal for the narrower chimney with open hearth

This is a striking antique free-standing fire basket, with pleasing Gothic revival appeal. A treat for the fireplace. Delivered polished and ready for the fireside.
