

Antique Wall Plate, Continental, Lead, Display Dish, St Hubertus, Georgian, 1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8909

This is an antique wall plate. A Continental, lead display dish honouring St Hubertus, dating to the late Georgian period, circa 1800.

St. Hubertus was an 8th century Christian saint, the patron of hunting and metalworkers in Liege, amongst other patronage.

- Delightfully cast in relief with copious ornate detail
- Displays a desirable aged patina with some historic marks to rim
- Cool and tactile lead presents appealing blue-grey hues
- Central medallion depicts St. Hubertus hunting within a forest glade
- Decorated rim presents repeating hunting scene panels
- Ready for wall hanging with a cast mount to the reverse

This is a fascinating antique wall plate, with appealing Continental historic interest. Delivered polished and ready to display.
