

Pair Of Antique Side Chairs, English, Walnut, Reception Hall, Seat, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8895

This is a pair of antique side chairs. An English, walnut reception hall seat, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Wonderful early Victorian craftsmanship for the reception hall
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select walnut shows fine grain interest and deep caramel hues
- Graced with a quality foliate silk cotton fabric in serviceable condition
- Sinuous top rail adorned with a carved flower posy over a delightfully pinched waist
- Buckle back and demi-lune lower rail accentuated with foliate motif
- Traditionally stuffed cushions with golden brocade trim to the lower edge
- Patterned textile coverings with appealing colour set against a cream ground
- Serpentine cabriole front legs with bold, beaded appearance
- Each raised upon an elongated and splayed pad foot
- Splayed rear legs with turned-out square section toes

Search London Fine for #18.8895 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 47cm (18.5")
- Max Depth: 50cm (19.75")
- Max Height: 89cm (35")
- Seat Width: 47cm (18.5")
- Seat Depth: 42cm (16.5")
- Seat Height: 44.5cm (17.5")

