

Antique Writing Desk, French, Decorative Centre Table, Louis XV Taste, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8898

This is an antique writing desk. A French, kingwood reverse breakfront decorative centre table in Louis XV revival taste with marquetry top, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Graced with exquisite marquetry and craftsmanship - a centrepiece of some distinction

- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Kingwood stocks present superb grain interest and rich blonde hues
- Excellent brass ormolu mounts accentuate throughout
- Striking quartered marquetry decorates the top surface
- Tastefully composed from select kingwood, boxwood and pear inlays
- Shield medallion to centre with foliate bouquet of delicate flowers and leaves
- Scrolled leaf flourishes add further decoration
- Quality oak drawer boxes, with a serpentine shaped fascia
- Dressed with an inset brass-lined double throw lock — in working order, key present
- Boxwood marquetry adorns each fascia, the 360-degree finish ideal for central room placement
