

Antique Fireside Bin, English, Copper, Brass, Coal, Log Bucket, Lid, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9006

This is an antique fireside bin. An English, copper and brass coal or log bucket with lid, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Generous Victorian fireplace bin with appealing finish
- Displaying a desirable aged patina in good original order
- Lightly polished copper presents appealing amber tones
- Brass fittings add a contrasting warm golden hue
- Domed circular lid adorned with a brass finial handle
- Resting neatly within the rim the lid reveals a clean, graphite finished interior
- Striking lion head mask backplates host circular drop handles
- Standing upon a trio of brass cabriole legs with distinctive paw feet

This is an appealing antique fireside bin. Suitable for all fuel types, the attractive appearance will enhance any fireplace. Delivered polished and ready to use.

Search London Fine for #18.9006 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 39cm (15.25")
Max Depth: 39.5cm (15.5")
Max Height: 49cm (19.25")
Opening Diameter: 32.5cm (12.75")
Internal Height: 31.5cm (12.5")

