

Antique Decorative Fireside Bin, English, Brass, Fire Bucket, Georgian, C.1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9089

This is an antique decorative fireside bin. An English, brass fire bucket with lion masks, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800.

- Captivatingly crafted Georgian bin, suited to the grandest of fireplaces
- Displays a desirable aged patina in good original order
- Polished brass presents appealing golden tones
- Suitable for all fuel types - coal, logs, kindling et al
- Of distinctive bulb form, accentuated with delightful relief grape patterns
- Demi-lune border patterns further decorate the body
- Superb lion head mask backplates host rolled loop handles
- Raised upon a trio of dashing hairy paw feet

This is a charming antique decorative fireside bin, graced with excellent detail throughout. In original order with pleasing weathering. Delivered polished and ready for the fireplace.

Search London Fine for #18.9089, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 35.5cm (14")
 Max Depth: 33cm (13")
 Max Height: 30.5cm (12")
 Opening Diameter: 26cm (10.25")
 Internal Height: 26.5cm (10.5")

LIST PRICE

£795.00

