

Antique Tribal Jardiniere, African Ironwood, Decorative Bowl, Planter, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9126

This is an antique tribal jardiniere. An African, ironwood and cast iron bound decorative bowl, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Wonderfully naive tribal craftsmanship and appearance
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Hand-carved and refined ironwood shows deep chestnut hues
- Bound with cast iron strapping to the bulbous body
- Of useful proportion, ideal for use as a distinctive planting pot

This is a fascinating antique tribal jardiniere, with pleasing tribal interest and useful form. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.

Search London Fine for #18.9126, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 29cm (11.5")

Max Depth: 29cm (11.5")

Max Height: 16.5cm (6.5")

Opening Diameter: 13cm (5")

LIST PRICE

£245.00

