

Near Pair Of Antique Carved Temple Chairs, Burmese, Decor, Colonial, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9103

This is a near pair of antique carved temple chairs. A Burmese, mahogany and woven leather low chair, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Utterly fascinating carved chairs, with distinctive low form and appealing detail
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select stocks present fine grain interest and deep chestnut hues
- Quality antique leather and rattan seats in taut woven order and complete
- Pairs of turned finials united with woven leather ropework above the shaped back rest
- Profusely carved, the back rests present scenes of foliate motif
- Stout block shoulders meet the seat cushion in carved cupped mounts
- Raised upon a quartet of squat circular feet, with a seat height of 16cm and 15cm respectively

This is a charming pair of antique carved temple chairs, with a wonderful tribal aesthetic. Ideal for decorative or fireside interest. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
