

Large Antique Steamer Trunk, Scottish, Canvas, Shipping Chest, Victorian, C.1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9008

This is a large antique steamer trunk. A Scottish, canvas and beech bound shipping chest, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Superb proportion and delightful fitted interior to this large trunk
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good original order
- Weathered green canvas substantially bound in cast iron and beech stocks
- Maker's label to lid interior for A. Boswell of Edinburgh, established in 1790
- Lid opens upon a pair of strap rests, with wide access to the interior
- Appointed with a pair of large removable linen trays, dressed with leather handles
 - Generously sized, clean interior with the trays removed offers a height of 50cm (19.75")
- With trays installed upon corner brackets, the interior retains a height of 28cm (11")
- Handwritten detail to the canvas with the initials HR HP and No11
- Central retaining clasp with bound lock escutcheon – untested, key absent
- Pair of stout clasps to either side hold the lid closed securely, opening with a firm action
