

Antique Floorstanding Dinner Gong, English, Oak, Bronze, Ceremonial, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9009

This is a large antique floorstanding dinner gong. An English, oak frame with stout bronze ceremonial cymbal, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Of generous proportion and decorative appeal
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select oak stocks shows deep russet hues and fine grain interest
- Cork striker dressed with leather hanging loop
- Substantial brass gong shows great patination and hand-beaten charm
- Gong suspended beneath the frame with quality leather cord upon circular mounts
- Raised upon two pairs of splayed feet with block toes beneath turned cup detail
- United from side to side with a broad, turned stretcher rail

This is an attractive antique floorstanding dinner gong, with a dulcet ring and presented within a distinguished show frame. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to strike.

Search London Fine for #18.9009 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 62cm (24.5")
 Max Depth: 33.5cm (13.25")
 Max Height: 94cm (37")
 Gong Diameter: 41.5cm (16.25")

