Our Stock # 18.9226

This is an antique demi-lune crystal cabinet. An English, satin mahogany and satinwood tambour front side table in Georgian revival taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Beautiful revival taste, capturing the exuberance of the late 18th century
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select satin stocks present superb grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Adorned with satinwood and boxwood inlay for further visual appeal
- Striking demi-lune top with an inlaid scallop shell motif and broad border finish
- Eye-catching form perfect for decanters atop and glasses within
- Pair of tambour fronts open smoothly, dressed with small drop pendant pulls
- Adorned with hand-painted motif, an oval medallion to the centre issuing scrolled ribbon details
- Pierced oval fretwork apron above a trio of slender tapering legs, with small brass bun feet

This is an ornate and delightfully crafted antique demi-lune crystal cabinet, with superb Georgian revival taste. Graced with excellent colour and fine decorative details, the tambour front is versatile and appealing. Solid joints and construction, ...
