Antique Folding London Map, English, Cartography, Historic, Georgian, Dated 1783

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8741

This is an antique folding London map. An English, paper on linen cartographical study of the London metropolis and the surrounding area, published in the mid Georgian period, dated 1783.

- Fascinating cartographic record of London in the late 18th century
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in delicate, but legible order
- Published on paper and mounted upon linen for posterity
- Across sixteen square sections, the map gently folds into one
- City of London accentuated in red, with the Thames and other rivers in light blue
- Similarly, London's parks are accentuated in green
- Annotated for County, Town and Borough names, as they stood in September 1873
- Published by John Wallis of 16 Ludgate Street London, at a scale of 69.75 statute miles to a degree of latitude

This is a superb antique folding map of London, with excellent detail of how the capital and the South East stood in the 1780s. Of delicate age, but delightfully legible, the map is ideal for framing. Delivered ready to enjoy.
