

Vintage Converted Petrol Can Lamp, Automobilia, Decorative, Accent Light, C.1950

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9254

This is a vintage converted petrol can lamp. An Anglo-American metal decorative accent lamp by Valor, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950.

- Fascinating decorative lamp, ideal for the garage or man cave
- Displays a desirable well aged appearance throughout
- Cast metal can with red painted sides and naturally finished top
- Impressed across the top with Petroleum Spirit, Highly Inflammable
- Delightful opaque glass shade sits prominently above the whole
- Original brass cap sits to the left, with warm golden hues
- Weathered Standard Gasoline emblem adorns the front fascia
- Maker's mark to base for Valor, an Anglo-American specialist in petrol cans
- Complete with a standard bayonet bulb, emitting a warm glow within the shade
- Quality length of braided cable replete with in-line remote control
- Illuminates with a British Standards compliant 3-pin plug

Search London Fine for #18.9254 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 26.5cm (10.5")

Max Depth: 15cm (6")

Max Height: 41.5cm (16.25")

LIST PRICE

£675.00

