

Antique Gentleman's Cigar Humidor, English, Campaign Smoker's Box, Regency, 1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9285

This is an antique gentleman's cigar humidor. An English, burr walnut and cedar campaign smoker's box with Bramah lock, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Exquisite figuring and craftsmanship elevate this fine humidor
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Burr walnut stocks present superior grain interest
- Striking, deep caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
- Beautifully presented with a trio of cigar drawers enclosed within
- Top replete with an inset, unmarked brass plaque - ideal for personalisation
- Handles to each side aid ease of carriage, important in period for the travelling gent
- Fine ebonised stringing accentuates each edge of the distinguished case
- Door held securely with a famous Bramah lock – in working order, key present
 - Each drawer dressed with an inset brass handle, set within distinctive shaped backplates
 - Cedar drawer boxes arranged with two generous compartments and narrow trough to centre

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 31.5cm (12.5")
- Max Depth: 25cm (9.75")
- Max Height: 31cm (12.25")
- Drawer (Compartment) Width: 11.5cm (4.5")
- Drawer (Compartment) Depth: 19cm (7.5")
- Drawer (Compartment) Height: 7.5cm (3")

LIST PRICE

£2,450.00

Search London Fine for #18.9285 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details