

Antique Gentleman's Soap Case, English, Silver, Travelling Box, Edwardian, 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9352

This is an antique gentleman's soap case. An English, sterling silver travelling box with hallmarks, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Delightful soap case with a fascinating Edwardian monogram
- Displays a desirable aged patina with a gently aged finish
- Quality sterling silver presents well, with a bright appearance
- Resplendent with a superb engraved monogram M to the lid
 - Hallmarks for Cohen & Charles, the Lion Rampant, Chester assay mark and letter K for 1910

This is a wonderful antique gent's soap case, with a pleasingly chamfered form and enhanced with a bold monogram. Perfect for the frequent traveller. Delivered polished and ready to use.

Search London Fine for #18.9352, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 10cm (4")

Max Depth: 6.5cm (2.5")

Max Height: 4.5cm (1.75")

