

Vintage Neo Classical Urn, Continental, Decorative Ornament, Grand Tour, C.1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9354

This is a vintage neo-classical urn. A Continental, Bakelite decorative ornament in Grand Tour taste, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Striking forms, with serpentine flourishes throughout
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Ornate upper presents dark tonality with light weathering
- Raised upon a bold Bakelite socle, with warm cream hues
- Strong neo-classical taste evident throughout
- Ornate domed lid topped with a charming acorn finial
- Foliate decor accentuates the lower section, with beading to the lid edge
- Imposing lion head mask projects from the front and rear fascia, upon a scrolled relief
- Of expressive form, the pair of sinuous handles terminate in bird head masks
 - In relief, an Acanthus leaf bulb decorates the support with a gadrooned circumference
 - The tactile socle finished in a naive, marble effect pattern

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 22.5cm (8.75")
 Max Depth: 19.5cm (7.75")
 Max Height: 38.5cm (15.25")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

Search London Fine for #18.9354, or scan the QR code for more photos and details