

Pair Of Antique Butchery Pigs, English, Plaster, Shop Display Figure, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9435

This is a pair of antique decorative butchery pigs. An English, plaster shop display figure, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Rare and unusual pair of display pigs in appealingly original order
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Jovial plaster figures with appealing facial character and anthropomorphic form
- Each pig dressed in a butcher's apron and white coat, holding a serving tray
- Ideal for a traditional butcher's shop or a character accent within a kitchen

This is a fascinating pair of antique decorative butchery pigs, with a wonderful character and patinated appearance. Unusual to find as a pair in original order. Delivered polished and ready for the home or institution.

Search London Fine for #18.9435 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Pig 1 Width: 30.5cm (12")
- Pig 1 Depth: 23cm (9")
- Pig 1 Height: 48cm (19")
- Pig 2 Width: 31.5cm (12.5")
- Pig 2 Depth: 24.5cm (9.75")
- Pig 2 Height: 43cm (17")

LIST PRICE

£1,695.00

