This is an antique flower display table. A Dutch, mahogany and inlaid fold-over gate leg console table, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780.

- Captivating craftsmanship with exceptional colour and detail
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select stocks beam with rich caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Beautifully inlaid with quality boxwood and apple
- Striking triangular form when folded, ideal for corner placement
- Central medallion presents a potted urn with sprouting foliage
- Further decorated with outer foliate motif, bordered with fine stringing
- Gracefully extends upon a pair of hinges to form a square profile
- Gate leg rotates from the centre to support the upper leaf
- Pair of oval foliate medallions accentuate the extended appearance
- Slender tapering legs graced with flowerhead motif and block pattern detail
