

Large Antique Don Quixote Book, English, Cassell & Co, Gustave Dore, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9539

This is a large antique copy of Don Quixote by Cervantes. Published in English by Cassell & Company and illustrated by Gustave Doré, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

Delightfully substantial, this large volume hosts the English translation of the classic 'History of Don Quixote' by the Spanish writer Miguel de Cervantes (1547 - 1616). A literary staple, presented here with a biography by T. Teignmouth Shore (1841 - 1911) and fascinatingly illustrated with etchings by Gustave Doré (1832 - 1883) the French painter and illustrator.

- Presents a desirable aged patina, intact with minimal discolouration
- Bound in green canvas over board, titling in gilt and with a cover etching of horse riders
- The famous story laid out across 885+ pages
- Wonderful full page and chapter header etchings with great detail and character
- Cassell's price list to rear catalogues contemporary titles from the publisher

This is a wonderful antique copy of Don Quixote, with a great proportion and delightful illustration. A treat for the collector or institution. Delivered ready to enjoy
