

Antique Writing Desk, English, Oak, Leather, Correspondence Table, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9516

This is an antique writing desk. An English, oak and leather correspondence table, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Of useful proportion and beautifully figured
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Striking quarter sawn oak presents superior grain interest and warm caramel hues
- Dressed to the top surface with an inset leather skiver, in good condition
- Two useful drawers across the front fascia, dressed with a pair of brass handles
- Inset, brass lined locks to each drawer – untested, key absent
- Drawer boxes crafted from mahogany with deep dovetail joints
- Raised upon tapering legs, with smooth riding brass and ceramic castors

This is an eye-catching antique writing desk, with a generous leather skiver and two drawers for keeping pens and books in discrete order. Perfect for the scholar or avid letter writer. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
