DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9547

This is an antique trophy bowl. An English, oak and silver plated decorative dish by George Goodfellow & Sons of London, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Fascinating appearance, with delightful quality and colour
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Oak stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Quality, bright silver plate presents minimal tarnish
- Removable ceramic bowl with Wedgwood maker's mark to base
- Benefits from unmarked shields to each side, perfect for personal engraving
- Distinctive handles to either side accentuated with chased leaf pattern
- Raised upon a circular foot with George Goodfellow & Sons EP marks to base

This is a highly distinctive antique trophy bowl, with wonderful craftsmanship and colour. Ideal for gifting, benefiting as it does from unmarked shields to each side. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
