

Pair Antique Officer's Campaign Luggage Cases, English, Nightstands, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9548

This is a pair of antique officer's campaign luggage cases. An English, leather and brass bedside nightstand, dating to the late Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Exquisite casework, with beautifully appointed detail and finishes
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Quality leather tanned to a rich caramel hue with lightly aged finish
- Bound to corners with brass cappings over leather straps
- Dressed with brass slide clasps to secure the stout lids when in transit – keys absent
- Once open, the lids remain raised upon cornflower blue straps
- Bright burgundy coloured velvet linings in pleasingly clean order
- The tactile lining adorned with brass press stud finish
- Military interest to the front fascia, with the Royal Coat of Arms and Warrant Officers Badge
- Intact name plates perfect for future engraving, a treat for presentation as gifts
- Each case numbered 1 & 2 respectively and feature a George V ensign (1910 - 1936)
