

Antique Gentleman's Money Clip, German, Leather, Pocket Coin Holder, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9671

This is an antique gentleman's money clip. A German, leather and silver plated pocket coin holder, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Fascinating and tactile pocket item, with collector coin interest
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Embossed leather padded covering in a tasteful brown hue
- Silver plate frame presents minimal tarnishing, opening in book form
- Fitted with a pair of sprung coin holders hosting two Italian 20c coins (1912 & 1921 issue) and an American Dime from 1964
- Delightful engraved concentric cross-hatch pattern detail to each sprung base
- Base plate engraved with the D.R.G.M - for Deutsches Reichsgebrauchsmuster - register mark
- Further engraved with a registered design number in English, presumably for export markets

This is a charming antique gentleman's money clip, with a trio of interesting coins from Italy and the USA respectively. Delivered ready to enjoy.
