

Vintage Match Pot, English, Bakelite, Bryant & May Matchstick Case, Circa 1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9672

This is a vintage match pot. An English, Bakelite Bryant & May matchstick case with striker, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Fascinating small pot, sized for accepting 'Lifeboat' matches
- Displays a desirable aged patina and good original order
- Deep brown Bakelite tapering body with a black screw-top lid
- Lid bears the text for Bryant & May Ships Lifeboat Matches
- Base provides instruction for striking matches on the grooved surface

This is a neat vintage match pot, with a charming appearance and clever use of the form to ignite matches with the grooved finish. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.9672 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 4.5cm (1.75")

Max Depth: 4.5cm (1.75")

Max Height: 7cm (2.75")

LIST PRICE

£125.00

