

Antique Officer's Campaign Correspondence Box, English, Writing Case, Regency

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9686

This is an antique officer's campaign correspondence box. An English, flame mahogany and leather writing case, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Delightfully attractive box, with fascinating secret drawers and quality finishes
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select stocks show superior grain interest and rich russet and caramel hues
- Quality tooled and embossed leather skiver across two sections
- Brass shield to lid in unmarked condition, ideal for personalisation
- Case fascia finished with a brass shield lock escutcheon – in working order, key present
- Dressed with a pair of brass recessed cup handles in the campaign manner
- Useful side drawer held in place by a removable interior pin
- Suite of compartments to the interior for storage of papers, pens and other items
- Each half of the skiver lifts to gain access to a documents compartment
- Hidden panel to upper skiver box hides a pair of shallow drawers
