

Pair Of Antique Footstools, English, Walnut, Cushioned Stool, Early Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9515
This is a pair of antique footstools. An English, walnut and boxwood cushioned stool, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Fascinating beaded stools in pleasingly original order
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Quality walnut frames present fine grain interest
- Accentuated with dashing marquetry in ebony and boxwood
- Traditionally stuffed, the beaded cushions host a distinctive foliate scroll motif
- Signs of light wear present to the original cushions, commensurate with age
- Each stool raised upon a trio of gadrooned ceramic bun feet

This is a charming pair of antique footstools, with charming beadwork cushions and a lightly aged appearance from nearly 200 years of careful use. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
