

Large Antique Display Cabinet, English, Jeweller's Shop, Retail, Victorian, 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9709

This is a large antique display cabinet. An English, bow end jeweller's shop retail cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Superb shopfitting display cabinet, with appealing double bow ends
- Displaying a desirable aged patina — some light scratches to top commensurate with use
- Slender mahogany frame presents rich caramel hues throughout
- Quality glazing presents a clear, bright appearance upon the interior
- Arranged as a pair of doors, the central pane slides across a runner for access
- Both doors dressed with brass drop handles and inset locks — key absent
- Usefully front accessed - ideal as a china display cabinet for a fine home
- Pair of thick, adjustable glass shelves to the mirrored interior
- Raised upon a continuous plinth base, with an 11 plank finished rear

This is an attractive antique display cabinet, with excellent proportion and a bright interior view from the generous glazing. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the institution or collector.
