

2 Antique Sporting Books, English, Fly Fishing, Hawker's Young Sportsmen, 19th.C

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9717

This is a set of two antique books of sporting interest. An English, hard bound copy of Haddon Hall's Fly Fishing and Instructions to Young Sportsmen in All That Relates to Guns & Description of Sportsmen in All That Relates to Guns & Description of Grey Fallodon (1862 - 1933) was a former British Foreign Secretary and ambassador, prominent during the First World War, and writer of one of the most popular books on the subject of fly fishing to be committed to print. A late Victorian publication, The Haddon Hall Library was a series of 9 volumes dedicated to popular sporting pursuits of the time. Published by J.M. Dent & Dent

- Presented in antique, timeworn condition intact but with some coloration to pages
- $\bullet$  Hard bound in green cotton with gold titling and detailing
- Second edition, but in the same finish as the first publishing
- Frontispiece and plates protected with tissue paper inserts
- Illustrated throughout with chapter headers and tailpieces

Considered as one of the great shots of the 19t ...

DIMENSIONS

Haddon Fly Fishing Width: 15cm (6") Haddon Fly Fishing Depth: 3.5cm (1.5") Haddon Fly Fishing Height: 20.5cm (8") 276 Pages

Hawker on Shooting Width: 15cm (6") Hawker on Shooting Depth: 3cm (1.25") Hawker on Shooting Height: 22cm (8.75")

480 Pages

