DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9716

This is a large vintage book, The Story of British Sporting Prints by Captain Frank Siltzer. An English, hard bound reference book of engravings, dated to 1929.

Compiled by Captain Frank Siltzer, formerly of H.M. Grenadier Guards, as an author he turned his hand to this title and its predecessor Newmarket. Published by Halton & Truscott Smith LTD of London, this edition was a limited run of 1,000 copies authorised by his late wife.

- A fine compendium of Georgian and Victorian engravings relating to sporting pursuits
- Presented in lightly time-worn, intact vintage condition with minimal markings to edge
- Bound in deep green waxed cotton with gilt titling to cover and spine
- Across 413 pages, this edition one of 1000 copies released posthumously
- Comprehensive text with colourful reproduction engraving plates

This is a fascinating vintage book, The Story of British Sporting Prints graced with delightful engravings in full colour and a wealth of information relating to the subject.
