

Antique Shipwright's Chest, English, Stained Pine, Workman's Trunk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9667

This is an antique shipwright's chest. An English, stained pine workman's trunk, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Pleasingly aged maritime chest, with a fascinating appearance
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Robust, stained pine stocks show copious patination
- Stout lid opens smoothly, coming to rest on the raised candlebox lid
- Appealing, natural interior in a delightfully clean order
- Inset brass lock to fascia – untested, key absent
- Hand painted monogram to lid reads W.H.W.
- Return to sender label to interior for the titular William H Waters
- Useful candlebox with lid organised into a pair of compartments
- Adorned with remnants of antique shipping labels
- Fascinating rope handles set within stout keepers to each end

Search London Fine for #18.9667, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 90cm (35.5")
- Max Depth: 45cm (17.75")
- Max Height: 31cm (12.25")
- Candlebox Segment Width: 9.5cm (3.75")
- Candlebox Segment Depth: 16.5cm (6.5")
- Candlebox Segment Height: 10cm (4")
- Interior Width: 68.5cm (27")
- Interior Width - Below Candlebox: 81.5cm (32")
- Interior Depth: 37.5cm (14.75")
- Interior Height: 26cm (10.25")
- Interior Height - Below Candlebox: 15cm (6")

