

Antique Artist's Box, English, Walnut, Paint Palette, Winsor & Newton, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.9737

This is an antique artist's box. An English, walnut and ebony paint palette case by Winsor & amp; Newton of London, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Appealing Victorian artist's box from a renowned paint supplier
- Displaying a desirable time worn patina and remnants of enthusiastic use
- Walnut stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- The lid edge accentuated with an ebonised corner finish

 \bullet Dressed to the fascia with a brass lined lock escutcheon - in working order, key present

- Interior offers a suite of compartments over pin-secured lower drawer
- Lift-out paint tray annotated with colour names and several vintage paint pots
- Lid interior emblazoned with a gold tooled Winsor & amp; Newton maker's mark

This is a charmingly well-used antique artist's box, with storage for the media and tools required for the enthusiastic travelling painter. Presented within a quality walnut case and in a wonderful 'as used' manner. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.97.57, or scan the UK code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd The Antique Village The Old Whiteways Cider Factory Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

DIMENSIONS

LIST PRICE

£495.00

Max Width: 22.5cm (8.75") Max Depth: 18cm (7") Max Height: 7.5cm (3") Drawer Width: 19.5cm (7.75") Drawer Depth: 13.5cm (5.25") Drawer Height: 1.5cm (.5")

